FÍON – THE WINE TASTING BENEFIT FOR CELTICFEST MISSISSIPPI

Mark your calendar for the Third Annual Fíon Tasting, the wine tasting for the common wallet! The folks at Wine and Spirits in the Quarter (Lakeland Drive) are partnering with Fenian's Irish Pub once again to bring a wine tasting for regular folks, completely informal, all as a benefit for CelticFest Mississippi.

Fíon (pronounced FEE-un) is the Irish Gaelic term for wine, and the root word of the name, “Fiona.” Let our experts guide you as you experience the dry whites, sweet whites, reds, and rosés, and learn what truly fine wines can be had for a reasonable price.

The tasting is known for its fine selections of wines, all set off by exquisite catered confections. Whether you are a seasoned wine connoisseur or a new wine drinker, there's something for you at the Fíon Tasting.

Those who are familiar with the Fíon Tasting, now in its third year this August, will recognize the relaxed format. This is not a formal sit-down sampling, but a casual, arrive-when-you-like wine tasting. Wine will be available at several different “stations” and staffed by a wine expert, and participants can meander from station to station, sampling and learning about the wines. Hors d' oeuvres will also be available to cleanse the palette.

Tickets are $20 for non-members and $15 for Celtic Heritage Society members. Contact Wine and Spirits in the Quarter at (601) 366-6644 for details. The venue is Fenian's Irish Pub on the corner of Jefferson and Fortification Streets.

The Fíon Wine Tasting is a benefit event, with all funds to support the 16th Annual CelticFest Mississippi, which runs Sept. 7, 8, and 9 at the Mississippi Agricultural and Forestry Museum.

Sponsored by Wine and Spirits in the Quarter and by Fenian's Pub.
